INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs are moving to compel the Watchtower Defendants to produce documentation and deposition testimony consistent with the PMK Notice of Taking Deposition which is currently set for October 18-19, 2006. (A copy of the Notice of Taking Deposition is attached as Exhibit 1.)

On November 15, 2005, Gary N. Breaux was deposed as the person most knowledgeable about, among other things, "any and all policies that the Jehovah's Witnesses organization had for handling accusations and proof of child sexual abuse from 1970 to the present." During the course of the deposition, Mr. Breaux identified certain functions that were handled by the legal department, rather than the service department in which he worked. He was unable to answer several questions about the role of the legal department in the formation and implementation of the policies in question.

LEGAL AUTHORITY

California Code of Civil Procedure § 2025.450(a) provides that a party may move for an order "compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice."

In addition, California Code of Civil Procedure § 2020.480(a) provides that a "party seeking discovery may move the court for an order compelling" an answer to a question or the production of a document which is under a deponent's control and is not answered or produced at the deposition.

CATEGORIES OF TESTIMONY TO BE COMPELLED

The deposition notice in question designates matters fairly included within the scope of "any and all policies that the Jehovah's Witnesses organization had for handling accusations and proof of child sexual abuse from 1970 to the present." Specifically, it designates the following matters:

- 1. The organization, staffing and operation of the Legal Department from the date of the department's creation until the present.
- The Legal Department's role in responding to and investigating allegations of child sexual abuse within the Jehovah's Witnesses organization from the date of the department's creation until the present.

Neither designation invades the attorney-client privilege or seeks to inquire about work product. The designations concern policies and their implementation and, but for his lack of personal knowledge, Mr. Breaux would have addressed them. (See excerpts of deposition of Gary N. Breaux attached hereto as Exhibit 2.)

TESTIMONY ABOUT PRODUCED DOCUMENTS TO BE COMPELLED

At the depositions, Defendants produced many documents pursuant to a duces tecum. However, several of the documents were created and utilized by the Legal Department and, again, Mr. Breaux did not have sufficient personal knowledge to testify about those documents. (The produced documents in question would be attached hereto as Exhibit 3 except that they may still be subject to a Stipulated Protective Order. For that reason, they will be provided to the Court at the time of the hearing.) Items 3 through 5 address three of those documents:

- 3. The development and use of "Child Abuse Telememos."
- 4. Records kept by or under the direction of the Legal Department concerning allegations of child sexual abuse.
- 5. Answers to the "Survey Questions" on p.2 or the 1993 "Child Abuse Telememo, page WTNY 00570 of the exhibits to the deposition of Gary N. Breaux and J. Richard Brown, Bates numbers SR 00000094.

Items 3 and 5 pertain to actual documents produced at the depositions. Exemplars of the "Child Abuse Telememos" were produced and Plaintiffs are entitled to examine defendant about the development and use of those documents. The "Survey" questions were found on one of the "Child Abuse Telememos" and Plaintiffs seek only to learn the results of that survey.

Item 4 seeks only to discover, generally, information about the type of records kept by the legal department, how long such records have been kept, the number of records, etc., in order to determine whether a request for specific documents would be appropriate.

GOOD CAUSE JUSTIFIES THE PRODUCTION OF THE DOCUMENTS AND ANSWERS TO THE QUESTIONS

These questions and documents go to the heart of the Plaintiffs' accusations of child sexual abuse and defendants' knowledge of that abuse. The knowledge of various individuals in the Jehovah's Witnesses organization is key to Plaintiffs' proof of their case in these matters.

The individual who was produced as the person most knowledgeable was unable to address various topics due to his lack of knowledge. Plaintiffs, through this motion, seek to have the Watchtower Defendants produce an individual with knowledge of the applicable topics and documents.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court find that the above discovery matters are not protected by the attorney-client privilege or the work product doctrine, and issue an order compelling the Watchtower Defendants to produce a witness or witnesses that will provide testimony in connection with the above five categories of inquiry.

The end of the control of the contro	iders have no duty to report shild abuse under child abuse reporting whether others who have knowledge make a cr pursue the matter legally is a personal on. We explained the Society's policy of testiality and directed the alders to contact the Department if they are subpossed. We had all objection to the olders handling this matter as rould any other case of serious wrong-doing. More should refer to the Amate! issues on child (6-22-32, 1-22-35, 12-22-36, 10-1-33) in giving prime spiritual assistance to the family. Positive should be taken to prevent further abuse. The should somitor the situation carefully for the circs of other potential victims.	The alders have a duty to report child abuse under the child abuse reporting law. They should speak to the offender directly and had out it is swilling to turn himself at. If he is turvilling, there may be someone she who has knowledge of the abuse who will make a report. If no one who has knowledge of the abuse is willing to make a report, two elders should make a satory-mous phoses report from a nestral location, such as a phone booth. They should keep a written record of who made the call, to whom it was made, the data and time of the call, and other periment factors. This record should hop be signed by the two elders and placed in congregation files as proof that a report of child abuse was made in compliance with the law. We explained the Society's policy of confidentiality and directed the siders to contact the Legal Department if they are subpoemed. We had no legal objection to the cloter handling this mater as they would any other case of serious wrongdoing. The elders should refer to the Awake! Issues on child abuse (6-22-52, 1-22-35, 12-22-36, 10-1-83) in giving appropriate spiritual axistance to the family.
